How PDF Trust Scholarship Program Impacts the Students with Disabilities

Monorama Gupta

Dept. of AIS
Session : 2018-19
Rajshahi University

Coming from a middle-class background, I had to overcome several obstacles to attend a prestigious institution. The Corona pandemic made it even harder to pay for my education, housing, and medication. The PDF Trust Scholarship came as a blessing at that difficult time and helped me pay my expenses.

Shaswata Das

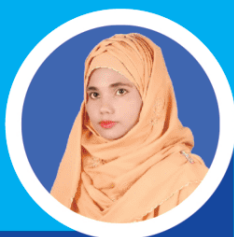

Dept. of Psychology
Session : 2017-18
University of Dhaka

Due to the covid-19 crisis, I was forced to see my family struggle to pay daily expenses, including my education. The emergency PDF Trust scholarship program has been really helpful. And now I'm continuing my education with significant potential.

Shahanara Khatun

Dept. of Political Science
Session : 2019-20
Eden Mohila College

My father is a farmer and the sole breadwinner of our family of seven. The pandemic worsened our financial condition. Online classes were too expensive for me to afford. Then I received a PDF scholarship, allowing me to continue my regular life and study.

Monirujjaman

Dept. of Govt. & Politics
Session : 2018-19
Jahangirnagar University

For many years, my father has been patient and unable to support the family. Furthermore, because of my vision impairment, I had to rely on the internet for my studies, which meant that I had to pay for internet in addition to my housing and education costs. It was just too much. My rescue came through the PDF Trust Scholarship.

Sujon Mia

Dept. of AIS, Session : 2018-19
BSMRSTU, Gopalganj

My father being a landless impoverished farmer and my mother having Asthma made it tough for me to afford data packs and continue study online. I was worried about missing the online classes and examinations. In that time, the PDF Trust Scholarship enabled me to complete my studies.
